

Web Site Evaluations

Ideal for managers who want to learn why their Web site does not generate a substantial return, this 35-point diagnosis uncovers the elements (or lack of elements) contributing to the problem. This thorough analysis helps you understand strategies like how to better influence each customer's buying decision, how to effectively capture Web site sales leads, and how to become more profitable online. Our written evaluations are fully loaded with detailed recommendations and solutions that are guaranteed to improve the effectiveness of your Web site.

Start making money with your Web site.

How much longer can you watch thousands of potential customers breeze in and out of your Web site? Frustration compounds quickly when resources are wasted on traffic building. Learn how to profit from the traffic you already have.

Wouldn't it be refreshing to capture just a fraction of that lost revenue? What would you do with the savings? Reinvest it to:

- Increase reach and top-of-mind brand awareness?
- Deploy complex cross-sell and up-sell strategies?
- Keep your pipeline full of qualified and targeted leads?
- Retire and move to Southern France?

Amazingly, your Web site can accomplish these objectives in less time and at lower cost than any off-line medium —which yields additional profit.

So how can your Web site accomplish critical objectives and start yielding profit?

Introducing the only audit and best practice report tailored to your business objectives and available resources -- plus guaranteed to improve the overall effectiveness and monetary impact of your Web site. Use our detailed advice to:

- Bring visitors deeper into your Web site
- Convert more visitors into customers
- Increase customer satisfaction ratings
- Start a loyalty dialog with current customers
- Increase search engine rankings
- Gain the trust of potential customers

Based on your business model, our evaluation will help transform your Web presence into a super-charged objective-accomplishing profit-yielding monster.
